

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

KWL CHART

Before you see the play, fill in the first two columns, “What I Know” and “What I want to Know”.
Fill in the last column ‘What I learned’ after you see the play “Everybody’s Watching”.

What I know

What I want to Know

What I Learned

A constitution is?

A convention is?

The people at the Constitutional Convention were?

The convention took place in
New York, Boston or Philadelphia?

The convention took place in the late 1600s, 1700s, or 1800s?

What is compromise? Give an example.

Is it good to compromise?
Why?

Why do you think the name of the play is Everybody’s Watching”?

Name _____ Class _____ Date _____

Quill Entertainment Diagnostic PRE-Play Test

Before you see the play, please answer the following questions so we can see what you know before you watch “Everybody’s Watching”. Enter the letter T if the statement is true or an F if the statement is false on the line in front of each question.

____ 1. A compromise is when people cooperate to solve a problem?

____ 2. A constitution is a set of laws or rules that people have to live by.

____ 3. E Pluribus Unum means “Out of many, one”.

____ 4. A foreign ally is a disease from which many people died during the colonial time.

____ 5. Roger Sherman was the delegate (person) from Connecticut who suggested the Great Compromise that suggested two houses of Congress to satisfy both the big and little states.

____ 6. Benjamin Franklin helped convince everybody to compromise so they could make the Constitution.

____ 7. New York City is where the Constitutional Convention (meeting) was held.

____ 8. In the play when the actors said if you “scratch my back, I’ll scratch your back”, it meant that everybody had a rash (skin problem) at the convention.

____ 9. What was the most difficult problem at the Constitutional Convention was where to have the meeting.

____ 10. The states at the convention (meeting) that were mentioned in the play were: Connecticut, Virginia, New Jersey and South Carolina.